Montana Medicaid Waivers and Requirements That Are Not Applicable to the Expenditure Authorities

1. Statewideness—Sections 1902(a)(1)

To enable Montana (the Host State) to implement a program in order to provide benefits to evacuees who are determined to be eligible under a Home State Medicaid program on less than a statewide basis.

2. Fair Hearings and Notices—Section 1902(a)(3)

To enable Montana to make determinations of temporary status in the Host State Medicaid program for a period of up to 5 months without according the right to fair hearings or appeals of adverse determinations that would be available for determinations with respect to eligibility status under the State plan. Nothing in this waiver limits the rights of such individuals to seek a determination of permanent eligibility status in the Home State with the right to fair hearings or appeals of adverse determinations.

3. Cooperation in Establishing Paternity—Section 1902(a)(45)

To permit Montana to determine eligibility for evacuees under the Home State program without requiring applicants to comply with paternity cooperation requirements of section 1912.

4. Retroactive Eligibility—Section 1902(a)(34)

To enable Montana to waive the requirement to provide medical assistance for up to 3 months prior to the date that the application for assistance under a temporary eligibility period is made for evacuees.

5. Freedom of Choice—Section 1902(a)(23)

To enable the Host State to restrict the choice of provider.

6. Comparability of Eligibility—Section 1902(a)(17)

To enable the Host State to determine financial eligibility without using the income and resource methodologies of the AFDC or SSI programs.

7. Amount, Duration, and Scope—Section 1902(a)(10)(B)

To enable Montana to offer benefits to evacuees other than those offered to populations in the Home State.

Montana Medicaid Costs Not Otherwise Matchable

Under the authority of section 1115(a)(2) of the Act, State expenditures under the Montana demonstration described below (which would not otherwise be included as matchable expenditures under section 1903) shall, for the period of the project, be regarded as expenditures under the State's title XIX plan. All requirements of the Medicaid statute will be applicable to such expenditures, except those specified as not applicable to these expenditure authorities. In addition, all requirements in the enclosed Special Terms and Conditions will apply to these expenditure authorities.

1. Montana expenditures, including administrative and benefit costs of extending benefits during a temporary eligibility period to evacuees who fit into the demonstration population consisting of parents, pregnant women, children under age 19, individuals with disabilities, low-income Medicare recipients, and low-income individuals in need of long-term care with incomes up to and including the levels listed on the attached simplified eligibility chart are determined to be eligible under a Home State Medicaid program.
2. Expenditures for Home and Community-Based Services furnished to evacuees, including administrative and benefit costs.
